Mapped Drives by Server

The Mapped Drives by Server report is a handy overview report with many drill-through features. You can view the total number of computers/users mapped to each server. You can then expand this detail in order to see what computers are connected, the user's name, the path, etc.

Knowing exactly who or what is affected by downtime or server replacements allows you to be more proactive, resolving issues or notifying affected users before they contact you.