Recast

About Privilege Manager Legacy

Last Modified on 11.07.25

With Privilege Manager, you can manage access rights in a centralized way to give end users limited self-service capabilities when needed.

- Limit admin privileges across all devices to increase security
- Give end users limited administrative privileges when they need them
- Push predefined security profiles to multiple devices at once
- Track the use of admin credentials via reports

Privilege Manager Components

- Privilege Manager Portal: Web application built on Microsoft Internet Information Server with ASP.NET
- Privilege Manager Database: Database built on Microsoft SQL server
- Agent Gateway: Web services built on Microsoft Internet Information Server with ASP.NET
- Agent: .NET Framework client application platform for Recast Software applications
- Privilege Manager Client .NET Framework extension to Recast Agent