Add Agent Gateways

Last Modified on 08.06.25

A Recast Agent Gateway is an on-premises component that connects your Recast Management Server to your Recast Agents. An Agent Gateway extends Agent connectivity to the Internet and provides a secure communications path for Agent authentication, authorization and licensing.

An Agent Gateway is automatically deployed and authorized when you install Recast Management Server during Privileged Access implementation.

To learn more, see Agent Gateways.