Recast

Seagull Scientific BarTender

Last Modified on 2026-09-24

It is currently not possible to install BarTender under device context.
If you install it under device context, because some files are missing, the application will not start.
This is due to the way Application Workspace installs BarTender.

Currently, the only way is to install it is under user context. The only downside is that the user gets a UAC prompt.